

Carven Warranty

100 Year Limited Warranty:

Carven Exhaust offers a limited 100-year warranty on all muffler products.

R-Series

Warranty is subject to internal perforated and solid baffles failing. External structures, such as muffler breakages of end caps are limited to warranty coverage if installation was performed professionally with correct placement of brackets on exhaust system.

TR-Series

Warranty is subject to internal muffler packing and is covered under warranty if the vehicle is equipped with OEM smog equipment. Modified application will produce excessive gases will compromise the internal fiberglass packing over time. External structures, such as muffler breakages of necks and gussets are limited to warranty coverage if installation was performed professionally with correct placement of brackets on exhaust system.

All qualified warranty product returns must have a copy of original receipt.

We encourage all purchasers to keep this page for their records and will need to be present for any warranty issues.